

Sally Wooldridge
Preschool Teacher

I started life in West Virginia and moved to Gloucester from Newport News with my husband in 1998 during the December ice storm. I came to Grace Covenant Presbyterian Church because of another member's enthusiastic invitation. I am a retired Occupational Therapist. I am widowed with two children, their spouses, and five grandchildren. In addition to teaching preschool Sunday school, I volunteer with the Bread for Life Food Pantry. My experience working with children includes leading Cub Scouts, Girl Scouts, helping the church nursery, advising youth, and teaching Sunday school preschool through middle school. My goal in teaching Sunday school is to help children become secure in the knowledge that Jesus loves them and that they are loveable and loved. I love Grace on Main for the Christian love I see in action.
